Honoring, reverencing and relying on Mary

Over the course of Christian history, Mary has been given many titles and many ecclesiastical responsibilities. She was the mother of God, assumed into Heaven and the first among the disciples. She was also a human being, susceptible to all the feelings and realities that are a part of our lives. I believe this is why Mary is so approachable. Together we will pray with Mary and explore the human experiences that make her truly our mother, sister and friend. We will use the novel, Our Lady of the Lost and Found by Diane Schoemperlen as the inspiration for our time together.
